Living on campus is an amazing part of university life at A&M-Commerce. Eating, studying and hanging out with new friends and faculty makes college an unforgettable experience, so we require all freshmen and sophomores to live on-campus. As a part of the on-campus community, you will have access to an exclusive integrated living-learning environment with countless opportunities to enhance your academic and social experience at the university.

www.tamuc.edu/living

If special circumstances restrict a freshman or sophomore student from living in university housing, please contact the Residential Living and Learning Office for the Commuter Authorization Form.

Freshmen enjoy the unlimited meal plan. We also offer a meal plan to commuters.

1. To apply for financial aid, you will need your Social Security Card (TASFA applicants may not have one), your federal tax returns (and your parents’, if applicable), W-2 statements and/or other documents showing money earned or received.

2. If you or your parent(s) electronically file your income tax return with the IRS at least 10 days prior to completing the FAFSA, you can use the IRS Data Retrieval system when completing the income sections of your FAFSA. It’s easy and quick!

3. Visit www.FAFSA.gov to request a PIN. This will allow you to sign the FAFSA electronically. If you are a dependent, both you and one of your parents/guardians will need one. Go to www.FAFSA.gov (or for the TASFA, go to www.CollegeForAllTexans.com) to complete your application. Provide school code 003565.

4. Check your myLEO to make sure everything has been received before the priority deadline of March 15 to be considered for the most aid.

A&M-Commerce accepts the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the Texas Application for State Financial Aid (TASFA) for those not eligible to complete the FAFSA.

As an A&M-Commerce student, you will find endless opportunities to express your school spirit. Blue and Gold Wednesday offers students, faculty and staff an opportunity to show their school spirit by donning their blue and gold gear. The Spirit of Sam Rayburn is also alive at A&M-Commerce. On spirit days and during major events, the statue of "Mr. Sam" outside the Rayburn Student Center is spruced up with blue and gold accessories.

Rayburn Student Center

For students who want to be involved, the Rayburn Student Center (RSC) is the place to be. The RSC is a spacious building dedicated to your needs as a student and provides many resources and activities. On the second floor, the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) is home to more than 100 student clubs and organizations, including the Campus Activities Board (CAB), the Student Government Association (SGA) and Fraternity and Sorority Life. The Leadership Engagement and Development (L.E.A.D.) department is also located on the second floor. The RSC features a dining room and food court; the Mane Card student ID office; and The Club, a venue for weekly special events and live entertainment; and a video gaming area with the latest releases, pool tables, table shuffleboard and air hockey.

A&M-Commerce is the only remaining charter member of the Lone Star Conference and has a rich athletic history which includes 58 LSC championships, five national championships and over 300 All-Americans. A&M-Commerce student-athletes have excelled not just on the playing surface, but in the classroom. Three Lions have been named Academic All-Americans, and we've had four Lone Star Conference Academic Players of the Year in the past two seasons.

Campus Recreation is where students come to life outside of the classroom. Mainly housed in the Jerry D. Morris Recreation Center, this state-of-the-art facility offers an indoor track, multipurpose courts, racquetball courts, a 45-foot rock climbing wall, a three-tier fitness area featuring functional training pieces, cardio, and weight room equipment and a multipurpose activity room. There is also an outdoor pool and recreation area, outdoor basketball and sand volleyball courts and BBQ grills. Campus Recreation also offers a variety of intramural and club sport programs, group fitness classes and special events throughout the year. Our Outdoor Adventure program provides outdoor educational and teambuilding experiences. You can check out tents, backpacks, canoes and other equipment. We also offer yearly trips and clinics, a ropes challenge course, road and mountain bikes (with weekly group rides) and an 18-hole disc golf course. In addition, our Outdoor Adventure program has added a bike/jogging trail.

The Cain Sports Complex is the home to intramural and club sports on campus. It also features soccer, flag football, softball fields, BBQ and horseshoe pits.
