John Sharp, M.P.A. Chancellor, The Texas A&M University System

John Sharp was appointed chancellor of The Texas A&M University System by the Board of Regents on September 6, 2011. As chancellor, Sharp leads one of the nation's largest university systems, which has an annual budget of $7.3 billion. Enrollment at the A&M System's 11 universities and health science center has grown to more than 157,000, and externally funded research expenditures are in excess of $1 billion.

Sharp brings with him more than three decades of public service. He came to the A&M System from Ryan & Company, where he was a principal with the largest state and local tax consulting firm of its kind in Texas. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Texas A&M University in 1972, where he was a member of the Corps staff of the Corps of Cadets and was elected student body president. Upon graduation, he was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserves. He belongs to American Legion.

In 1976, Sharp received a master's degree in public administration from Southwest Texas State University while working full-time with the Legislative Budget Board in Austin. In 1978, he opened a one-man real estate firm in Victoria, Texas, and became a successful small business owner.

That same year he was elected to the Texas House of Representatives and was named "Outstanding Freshman" by Texas Monthly. He won a seat in the Texas Senate in 1982, where he served on the powerful Senate Finance Committee, and was elected to the Texas Railroad Commission in 1986.

Sharp was elected state comptroller in 1990 and re-elected in 1994. When he took office, he quickly began working to fulfill his pledge to "make government work more like our most successful businesses." Eight years later, he reinvented Texas state government and turned it into a high-quality, low-cost customer service operation that has saved taxpayers billions, helped avert a state income tax and served as a model around the world.

Mark Rudin, Ph.D. President, Texas A&M University-Commerce

Dr. Mark Rudin was appointed President of Texas A&M University-Commerce by The Texas A&M University System Board of Regents on August 16, 2018. Dr. Rudin has a Bachelor of General Health Science (1983), Master of Science in Health Physics (1985), and Doctor of Philosophy in Medicinal Chemistry with a Concentration in Health Physics (1989) from Purdue University.

Student preparedness, expanded research, and economic development are among Dr. Rudin's top priorities as President. His vision for A&M-Commerce includes adapting traditional models to meet the needs of all students and providing skills development in preparation for post-graduation employment.

Prior to assuming the presidency at A&M-Commerce, Dr. Rudin served as the Vice President for Research and Economic Development at Boise State University. During his eleven-year tenure at Boise State, he played a central role in expanding research activity and developing collaborative partnerships with both public and private entities.

Dr. Rudin previously served at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in a variety of administrative roles before being named Interim Vice President for Research and Graduate Dean. He also served as a Technical/Administrative Assistant with the U.S. Department of Energy and as a Senior Program Specialist/Project Engineer with EG&G Idaho, Inc.

Dr. Rudin's career in education began in Idaho where he served as an instructor in the Department of Health Physics at Idaho State University.

Commencement Speakers

Patricia Krebs, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., J.D. Retired General Counsel, The Celtic Group

Born in Gilmer, Texas, Patricia graduated first in her class from East Texas State University in 1973, earned her M.A. in 1976 from Tulane University, and then continued her education by earning a Ph.D. from Tulane University on a Fulbright-Hayes fellowship in Spain. She graduated magna cum laude from Tulane Law School in 1983, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif. At Tulane, she served on the board of editors for the Tulane Maritime Lawyer.

Patricia pursued a 35-year legal career in private practice becoming a partner at King Krebs & Jurgens, specializing in commercial and maritime litigation. She then served as the general counsel for The Celtic Group, a corporation comprised of maritime and logistics, international shipping commercial real estate, and film studios.

Patricia has held several prestigious positions within the legal community, including past president of the Louisiana Bar Foundation, where she also served as secretary, treasurer, and vice president. She is a past president of the New Orleans Bar Association and was honored with the New Orleans Bar Association's Distinguished Maritime Lawyer Award in 2009, the award's first female recipient. Additionally, she is the first woman to chair the Planning Committee for the Admiralty Law Institute, serving on its national advisory board, and is a past president of the Fulbright Association's national board and its Louisiana chapter.

Her accolades include: New Orleans Federal Bar Association President's Award, Texas A&M University-Commerce Distinguished Alumni Award, Louisiana Super Lawyers, Best Lawyers in America for Admiralty and Maritime Law and New Orleans City Business Leadership in Law.

While no longer engaged in the active practice of law, Patricia remains active within her community. She has served as president of Covenant House New Orleans, Lighthouse for the Blind, and the World Affairs Council of New Orleans. Patricia enjoys traveling, is an avid reader and historian, and gives back to her community through service and mentorship.

Hayden Neeley BBA in Marketing

Hayden Neely is graduating Cum Laude with honors, having pursued a Bachelor of Business Administration with a focus on Marketing. He has been engaged in charity events donating over 96 hours towards community service within the university and the surrounding community and helped raise over $40,000 towards the Huntsman Cancer Institute. He quickly got involved in his first year at the university, joining the honors college in the fall of 2021. In addition, as a Lion Ambassador, he helped showcase the campus to new students, faculty, and ambassadors from other institutions. He dedicated himself to campus positions such as Rising Lions Mentors, the ROAR Orientation Team, Lion Camp Counselors, the Inter-Fraternity Council Executive Board, and the Sigma Chi Executive Committee. During a summer internship, he found a passion for helping others through financial education and planning. He is now a financial advisor in the East Texas area and looks forward to helping financially strengthen his friends, family and community.

Vicki Miller BAAS in Organizational Leadership

Vicki Miller has called East Texas home for the last 17 years after being born and raised in South Texas. She has dedicated 20 years of her life to homeschooling her four children while pursuing her educational goals, a time she describes as both challenging and immensely rewarding. She is active in her local community through involvement in various service-focused organizations. One of her greatest joys is bringing people together through food. Completing her Bachelor's degree in Organizational Leadership this August is fulfilling a lifelong dream of hers. This accomplishment not only represents her dedication and hard work but also opens opportunities for her new career with a focus on helping others find their path in life. She is excited about new adventures, more travel, and the opportunity to use her skills to help others follow their dreams.

Honors College

The Honors College at Texas A&M University-Commerce is a learning community of students that strive to gain a better understanding of the world around them and of themselves. Honors College students challenge themselves through completion of an interdisciplinary honors curriculum, culminating in the completion and successful defense of a thesis directed by esteemed faculty, a meaningful internship experience, or study abroad. Honors College students also enjoy the opportunity to live in Honors-designated housing and to participate in service to the community.

The Honors Fourragère and Pin

Originally, a Fourragère was awarded to members of a military unit for distinguished service. The students we honor here today have shown themselves courageous in the battle for academic excellence, and they have earned the right to wear these braids of distinction.

Blue and gold in color, to echo the University's colors, the Fourragère is to be a reminder of Texas A&M University-Commerce, but the colors are symbolic, as well. Blue is the color of sincere intellectual endeavor—a tradition that carries forward from Ancient Egypt, and that is reflected today in the blue velvet on a doctoral graduation gown. The blue in this braid represents the fulfillment these Honors students have attained from their work. Joined separately with the blue is gold, the symbol of public achievement, as in a gold medal. We have every reason to believe these graduates are entering successful and fulfilling futures, bringing credit to themselves and to the Honors College and Texas A&M Commerce.

Students who successfully defend a thesis are also awarded an Honors pin, also in blue and gold, to be worn on the graduation regalia and kept as a reminder of their hard work.

Academic Distinction

Summa Cum Laude—3.90-4.00 Magna Cum Laude—3.70-3.89 Cum Laude—3.50-3.69

The level of attainment will be determined by the overall Texas A&M University-Commerce grade point average. Academic distinction designations are preliminary at the time of commencement and are based on the grade point averages earned in the term before graduation. Final levels of distinction will be made after current semester grades are posted and will be printed on diplomas and academic records.
