We will need confirmation of the award amount and award semester(s). For example, a student is awarded a $1000 competitive scholarship for the academic year. This scholarship includes the in-state tuition waiver. The ISSO calculates the financial value of the scholarship as $1000 (the scholarship amount) + $9500 (our calculated value for the in-state tuition waiver)= $10500 toward the required $28000.
- Government funds:
 - The I-20 cannot be issued until a financial guarantee with the student's name, university name, and academic major student is admitted has been provided.
- Sponsor living in the U.S.
 - Sponsors living in the U.S. will be required to submit the I-134 Affidavit of Support in place of the sponsor statement below. Sponsors will only need to include the funding information they are submitting to the university on the I-134 (not salary, tax forms, real estate, etc...).
