

Student Study Abroad Advisement Form

Complete this form only if you are:

- participating in a TAMU-C-recognized exchange program. (For purposes of academic advisement, programs through University of Southern Mississippi and international university partners are considered exchange programs.)
- participating in a third-party program, such as University Study Abroad Consortium (USAC) or American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS).
- participating in a faculty-led program that is being led by a faculty director outside your major field of study, e.g., a social work student participating in a sociology study abroad program.

I have met with the student listed below and discussed her/his study options under the desired study abroad program. She/he is aware of what course work should be taken to ensure its transferability to TAMU-C and applicability to her/his degree program.
