- VI. Guest Speaker
 - A. Judy Sackfield- Very appreciative of all feedback given for Starbucks. We will look at the walkway option for the library. Chick Fil A is now open.
 - a. Question: When will Starbucks be open completely and when will construction start?
 - i. Construction will start soon. The plan is have Starbucks opened by the fall. There is a renovation going on in the downstairs bathroom, so as soon as that is done, construction will start.
 - b. Question: There is an ATM for financial aid in that section, where is it going?
 - i. We are looking to find places, potentially the Recreation Center.
- VII. Executive Board Reports
 - A. President: Jasmine Williams- FSL and SGA are working on a collaboration. Save the date for a bonding night Friday, January 22nd.
 - B. VP/Senate Chair: Peter R. - Reach out if you need anything and have a great first week of classes.

- C. VP/Senate Affairs: Jaelyn Cooper- Keep her updated on everything for your committees.

VIII. Advisor Report

- A. Jeremy Sippel- SGA has a Pickle ball Team that is looking to bring home a championship this semester. The “Pop the Corq” event was a success. Mane Street (student organization fair) will take place in the Rayburn Student Center on the 2nd floor from 4-6 pm. SGA will have a table in Traditions. Please promote to fellow students. There will be about 50 organizations present at this event. The budget had items moved around. Due to this, it needs approval; be on the lookout for a GroupMe message to approve these changes!
