Wellness Event

Last month we relaxed and learned the importance of a Mental-Health Wellbeing Day. This month we will have a sun safety day and a fun craft and tea day.

June is the first month in summer and summer in Texas means one thing...heat. Please join us in learning about sun safety and heat exhaustion from our wonderful partner Cindy Quinn from Blue Cross Blue Shield. This event will be held in the training room of the Employee Services Building and the signup is now available on the Develop U website. Later in June, June 26th, we will have a relaxing tea and craft time. The crafts we will be making are color sheets and animals out of pipe cleaners. We would love for you to join us for one or both of these events!

Training and Development

In Training and Development there will be a New Employee Orientation on June 3rd from 9am-1pm. Make sure to sign up for this if you are a new staff member. This will go over information that is great to have as you start your time here at East Texas A&M University. You can sign up through the Develop U link here: <https://appsprod.tamuc.edu/td/CourseCalendar.aspx>. If you have any questions please contact: Training@etamu.edu

Time and Leave

Time and Leave reminds you of the holidays that are coming up.

Be sure to take action to ensure you receive your wellness credit in time.
