

Robert McNair Program at A&M-Commerce

The mission of the Texas A&M University-Commerce Ronald E. McNair Post-baccalaureate Scholar's Program is to prepare and increase the number of undergraduate students in the fields of Math, Sciences: Engineering/Technology, Chemistry, Physics, Biology and Environmental Sciences, Psychology, Sociology, Anthropology, English/Literature, Agriculture, Business/MIS (Management Information System), Computer Science & Information System, Education, Criminal Justice, Sociology, History, and Political Science. Students who participate in the program come from underrepresented groups, showing strong academic potential, and are committed to pursuing a doctoral degree.